

Interest Sections of the British Community

The British Community will set up Interest sections, so that there may be cooperation between the EU and the BC. It will request assistance from the Scottish government in working jointly with them in what are currently Interest Sections of UK Embassies.